Catawba Furnace Property Will be Offered at Auction.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg. Va., December 27.—In the United States District Court here Judge McDowell has entered a decree ordering the resale of the Catawba furnace property in Botetourt County, which was purchased several years ago, when sold under an order of the court, by E. E. Francey, S. W. Harrell and R. M. Luck, the purchase price being $65,000. Since then about $45,000 has been paid upon the purchase price, and a recent report to the court of R. H. Angell, the receiver in the case, shows the purchasers to be in default; hence the order of resale. For the purpose of exposing the deferred payments are not met in thirty days, exposing it to public auction in front of the county courthouse of Botetourt County, the court fixing $30,000 as the minimum bid to be accepted by the master at such gale. The decree comes in the bankrupt proceeding of Adolphus Rundon's administratrix and others against the Catawba for cannon and the explosion of ranking the tree in the principal around the tree in the princip

New Treasurer qualifies.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Emporta, Va., December T.-W. E. Richardson, who was appointed by Judge Jesse F. West to succeed B. W. Wyche as county treasurer, qualified to-day, giving corperate surety. Mr. Wyche, who has been county treasurer continuously and almost without toposition for the past twenty years, resigned on account of ill health. There were three aspirants to succeed him, and the Democratic Executive Committee requested a preferential primary, in which Mr. Richardson was successful by a majority of three over his two opponents, both of whom received the same number of votes.

For a number of years Mr. Richardson was a lieutenant in the Greensville Guards, Company M. Fourth Regiment infantry, Virginia Volunteers, having worked his way upfrom the ranks. He declined the captaincy of the company when his turn for promoilon came.

Luray, Va. December 27.—To the strains of religious hymns and Christmas anthems. Luray's community Christmas tree exercises were held tonight, hundreds of children marching around the tree in the principal square of the town, the body finely forming in the shane of a star on the east side of the tree. The roaring of cannon and the evolusion of giant firerackers formed the chief feature of the occasion. Ministers of all denominations took a leading part in the proceedings. The tree was decked with bundreds of electric lights.

Mr. Myers Out in Few Days.

The condition of Earney E Myers, a well-known citizen, who suffered an attack of heart trouble yesterday morning, was last night reported to be satisfactory, and it was said that he would be able to leave Grace Hospital in a few days. Mr. Myers recovered from pneumonia several days ago, and it was believed that he overtaxed his strength by attempting to transact business too early.

is bottled by the distillers for home use, and every drop is guaranteed. There are other whiskies just as pure, but none at the same price that combine honesty with the same delightful bouquet and delicious flavor-and there is no other equally sound whiskey which sells at the low price of $4.00 for four full quarts (express prepaid). This is the top-notch whiskey at the low-notch price. It is unsafe to use whiskey which sells for less, because there is a price below which it is impossible to produce a dependable article.

latter came to the road and tried to engage him in a quarrel. Smith drove on, and when he reached the camp he told of Jeter's accosting him, stating that the negro had said he would get even with him. When he started home Smith was advised to take a gun back with him, which he did. On his return, it is reported, the negro sprang into the roadway and, raising a gun to his shoulder, deliberately fired at Smith, the load of shot tearing away a portion of the top of his buggy. Smith returned the fire, killing the negro.
